

RATE CUT WIDE OPEN

Railroads Telegraph Notification of One Fare Rate

FOR ALL NEXT WEEK

For Wichita Street Fair With Distances of 150 Miles.

After considerable struggling with the railroad companies, extending back to the time the street fair organization was put into motion, concession of one rate for both ways was secured over all the roads for a distance of 150 miles. Word was received from the Santa Fe general offices at Topeka yesterday that that road would give a one fare rate from Oklahoma to the south and all intermediate points, from Woodward on the Panhandle, from Englewood on the Mulvane extension, from Pratt on the Wichita and Western, from Iola on the Southern Kansas, from Topeka on the north, from Dodge City on the west, from Tonkawa and points on the Blackwell extension. The one-way rate is good from all intermediate points and the rate will be good for the entire week.

The Price had already made an exceedingly low rate for the week, and special low rate for Frisco day, when special trains will be run from Ellsworth, Oswego and Blackwell. The Missouri Pacific will also run special trains from Kiowa and Geneseo on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but in addition to this they have also made an open one-way rate for the week for the distance mentioned. The Rock Island will run special trains Friday, but that road also cuts everything wide open at a one-way rate for the entire week.

The exact points on the Missouri Pacific from which rates have been made was not secured, but it is 150 miles in every direction.

The street fair management was very jubilant over the matter yesterday. Wichita will not forget the good work of the local railroad men in this matter, as well as in making displays and contributing to the fair.

UNIQUE MINING OUTFIT

Party Left Wichita Yesterday to Explore for Coal.

Sometime yesterday, no one was able to tell just when, a party of sturdy miners left this city by back streets and in a secret, mysterious manner for some point sixteen miles southeast of this city, to prospect for coal. Even the identity of the party remains wrapped in solemn gloom of mystery. Certain it is that Pat Gould is at the head of it and that he is in chief. The rest were masks to conceal their identity. The make-up of the outfit would astonish the greenest tenderfoot of the pork and beans pilgrims from the far and effete east who ever assayed to hunt in the stomach of the earth for hidden treasure. The principal features of the tools and machinery were as follows: One wheelbarrow, a pick-axe, a long-handled spade and a Bryan, Brown, candy bucket with a tin cup. Of course they had an improvised hand-drill which was home-made and fit only to bore into a goose egg. Then they had a monkey wrench, several lengths of drill piping, a log-chain, some boards and a pipe wrench, besides ropes, matches, fishing tackle and a bottle of Vaseline Oil. The outfit was huddled over the Santa Fe as usual. Crime. They claim they are going down into the earth at least 500 feet and have already contracted with several large syndicates and bloated corporations to handle the output of the coal mine to be dug by a six-inch tubing. How in the world they expect to get holding machinery and elevator shafts jammed down into a six-inch hole is another of the wonders and fantastic problems yet to be solved by the ingenuity of man. And then, too, how they expect to cut their way through adamant rock with a wheelbarrow and that monkey wrench is not known, and neither do they attempt to explain it. What the empty candy bucket is for as a mining utensil, it yet to be explained also.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69185]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Two years ago I began having such dull, heavy dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful, and was troubled with leucorrhoea. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant. Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise it enough."—MRS. CORA GILSON, YATES, MANISTEE, MICH.

"Your Medicine Worked Wonders."

"I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhoea, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

INFANT INCUBATOR

Will Be Put on Exhibition During the Street Fair.

The infant incubator with living infants will be on exhibition during the street fair next week. It will be under the auspices of the directors of the Wichita Hospital and Training School, and to them is due all the credit of securing this invention from the Omaha exposition, where it was awarded a gold medal. It was also exhibited at the queen's diamond jubilee exposition in London, in 1897, where it was visited by the queen herself and all the crowned heads of Europe.

FISH FOR THE RIVER

Mayor Ross Obtains Five Hundred New Cropple and Trout.

Yesterday the fish commissioners' car was in Wichita and Mayor Ross secured 500 cropple and rainbow trout for the river. They have been planted and will grow into fine fellows, for the Isaac Walton to lose his bait to.

Mayor Ross would have secured more, intended to in fact, but the man in charge of the water in the car went to sleep the other night and forgot to change the water and a whole stock of fish turned over and died.

Want Early Closing.

To the Editor of the Eagle.

We, the officers and members of the Salesmen's Protective association, met in regular session Thursday evening, with large representation. We had no application from any house to keep open next week. On the other hand, large stores sent their clerks to urge early closing. In other cities the stores generally close from half an hour to an hour earlier on fair week. We know our merchants have given liberally towards making this carnival a success, and we want to do the right thing toward our merchants but the stores that gave the most money want to close. We consider the gate is not open till 10 o'clock. That will give all time to buy in the daytime, as everything is at night. People won't want to buy goods after the regular closing hour. As there has been no agreement, all houses will be expected to close as follows: Grocery stores, 7:30; clothing and racks, 7; dry goods, and boots and shoe houses 8:30.

NICE LEGAL POINT

Involved in an Insurance Case in Appellate Court

LIFE POLICY WAS ASSIGNED

Company Refuses to Pay Because Note Was Outlawed.

A case was submitted at Wednesday's sitting of the Kansas court of appeals involving some very nice legal questions, as to the right of an outlawed creditor to collect on a life insurance policy which had been assigned to him as security.

On the 6th day of July, 1874, William P. Creitz executed to William A. Allen his promissory note for $800.00, payable one day after date, and as security for the payment of the note Creitz assigned to Allen all his rights, title and interest in an insurance policy which he had taken out on his own life, payable to his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, at his death. Allen held the note and policy of insurance until after the note became barred by the statute of limitations.

On the 11th day of July, 1892, Creitz died in the state of Oregon, while the policy was still in force. After the death of Creitz Allen assigned his interests in the policy of insurance to Charles Hoff, and the latter commenced suit in the District court of this county on the 25th day of May 1893, to recover the amount of the debt secured by the policy from the Aetna Life Insurance company. It being the company that issued the policy.

The insurance company set up the defense that as the debt for which the policy was assigned as security was outlawed no recovery could be had on the policy. In the district court it was held that there could be no recovery and judgment was rendered in favor of the insurance company. Hoff took the case to the court of appeals and the contention now is made, on his behalf, that, notwithstanding the original debt may have been barred, the right of action still exists on the policy, and he being the owner and holder of it, is entitled to recover.

It is contended on behalf of the insurance company that the debt for which the policy was assigned as security was outlawed and also that the note to secure which the policy was assigned never having been assigned that no action can be maintained on the policy.

The questions involved have never been passed upon by either the supreme court of this state or any of the appellate courts and the decision of the appellate court in this case will be looked to with considerable interest by the legal profession.

The many friends of A. H. Buckwalter of Gauda Springs, will regret to learn of his death at that place last Sunday.

The old gentleman has had charge of the bath house at Gauda ever since its opening and was preparing to resign his position as superintendent because of its arduous duties, when he was stricken. After an illness of six days he had an apoplectic stroke from which he never recovered.

The visitors to the springs and the patrons of the bath house will miss Mr. Buckwalter and his kind and courteous treatment.
